Jamie Wright

✉ jamie@brilliantfantastic.com

📞 419.509.7467

🐙 jwright   🐙 brilliantfantastic

today

Mar. 2014

12 Week Year Rewrite

A web application that allows members of the 12 Week Year program to create tactics and goals, review progress, and view video content which helps them achieve specific goals.

Dec. 2013

BOLD Guidance Counselor

Mobile web application to help guide high school students through their college applications. Tracks student's progress through the application process.
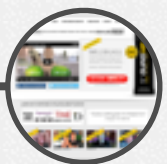

Sept. 2013

Funnelcake

Web application and platform to funnel all communication from various applications (Campfire, Basecamp, Pivotal, GitHub, email, etc.) to one place.
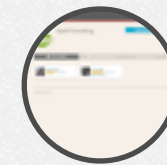

Oct. 2013

BOLD Guidance Student

Mobile web application to help high school students keep track of requirements for college applications, search for colleges, and create task lists.
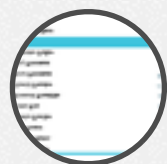

Sept. 2013

Go Gung Ho

E-commerce web application that allows users to buy or subscribe to a monthly subscription for a brain supplement / energy booster.

Aug. 2013

Cloud Contact

Web application for a startup that allows for easy creation of contacts for groups such as schools, Boy Scouts, user groups, poker clubs, etc. Created MVP application in 4 weeks.

July 2013

Toledo Clinic

Mobile web application for physicians to share their private numbers with other physicians to enable quicker communication between physicians.

Aug. 2013

Chronic

Mac OS application to time box tasks and record that time with major time tracking web applications such as Freshbooks and Harvest. Uses natural language parsing for quick entry.

Ruby on Rails class
June 2013

An in person, 11 week, workshop presenting an introduction to Ruby on Rails. Students learned Ruby and created a Rails web application using TDD methodologies as well as Git as materials were stored in GitHub.

Team Interval
May 2013

A web based communication portal for high school, collegiate, and professional sports teams. Enables students to use email and text messaging to talk to a coaching staff and schedule events, download materials, and create injury reports.
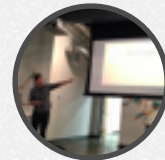

July 2013

ThinkCERCA

A web based application to allow teachers to create course materials and deliver those to students. Teachers can grade assignments and provide feedback for online courses.
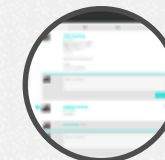

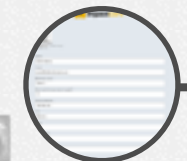

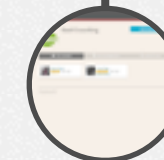

Impact Card
Feb. 2013

A web application and API for a loyalty program that allows members to assign percentages of proceeds to go back to non-profits for participating merchants. The API was used for an accompanying iOS application.
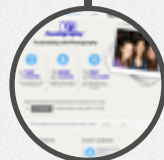

12 Week Year
Nov. 2012

A web application that allows members of the 12 Week Year program to create tactics and goals, review progress, and view video content which helps them achieve specific goals.

July 2012

Fundography

A web based application, API, and iOS application to enable people at a charity function take and share photos that others can purchase to help the charity.

Look Booth
Feb. 2013

A web application that displays photos and enables sharing for photos taken at photo booth which are uploaded in real time. An API and Mac OS application are used at the photo booth to enable the real time upload.

Koki
June 2012

A web platform that makes sharing calendars and events very easy. It has features that help users get to events easier with smart alerts. Integrates with the Google Calendar API.

June 2012

Cooper Tire and Rubber

Web based application used on the manufacturing floor to help chemists create new recipes and track existing recipes. Includes a workflow to help recipe changes get approved and communicated.

Seed Coworking
May 2012

Planned and opened Toledo's first coworking facility. Created a web application for users to sign up and manage their monthly dues. API is created to allow the operation of a key fob door access system.

Burnor Appraisal

Application for appraisers to track appraisal orders, addresses, and payroll as well as help facilitate communication within a company.

Jan. 2011

May 2011

Spartan Chemical

A web based custodial management application to allow custodians from small and large facilities to track facility tasks, inventory, orders, and customers.

May 2009

Morale

A web application and API to help developers create tasks with a simple sentence. Uses natural language parsing to parse out the sentence and assign tasks, provide due dates, and assign severity.

Feb. 2009

The Leadership Circle

Created two applications to facilitate the taking of company surveys on the web. An administrator application was created to help create, assign, track, and analyze surveys for users within a company. Created an application to distribute surveys and collect answers from those users.
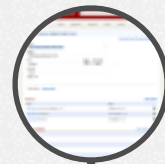

May 2008

Michigan Virtual University

A web based application to help Michigan high school students find colleges and carrier interests. Facilitates surveys and allows users to find and save interesting college courses.
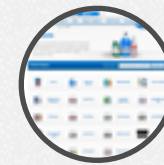

thanks